

CONGREGATIONAL LIFE

New Members: Kevin Hofman met with the elders this past Tuesday evening, professed his faith, and was approved as a new member. Ann Hofman was also recently approved as a new member who was previously a member at First Reformed Church in Sheldon. In an upcoming Sunday service Kevin plans to publicly profess his faith and we will welcome both him and Ann as new members.

Noreen Krikke suffered a stroke on Monday and has had a difficult week. She is currently in the hospice room at Sanford Senior Care in Sheldon. We pray for her and her loved ones in what is likely her final season of life.

Pray for Dee Visser, Judy's daughter-in-law, as she is undergoing chemotherapy treatments, that the Lord would bring about her healing through them.

Sara Schilling is scheduled to have her baby this coming Friday. We pray for a smooth procedure and healthy child to the Schilling family.

Jack Elgersma's chemo and radiation treatments have been going well. We continue to pray for his healing.

Craig Stange, Cody's father, is dealing with cancer and still awaiting a clear diagnosis. He had surgery on his vocal cords and a biopsy taken from a growth on his esophagus last week. Prayer for him and his family as they anticipate learning more this week.

What a blessing it is to reconnect with family and friends over the Easter holiday. We thank the Lord for safe travels for those who visited us here in Sanborn and those who were out of town with others last week.
