Bible League prayer requests

Argentina ~ Max and Andrew have been in the country of Argentina. Max reports that Argentina is not doing well. The poverty is rampant. Please pray for that. But also for BLI's partner in Argentina who just started their work in the first federal prison. It has never happened before. Let this movement develop into the country-wide movement. See their live video and pictures at <https://www.facebook.com/BibleLeagueInternational/>

Newyogo Division ~ Jessie Rose's daughter Julie was diagnosed with Meniere's Disease, a devastating incurable inner ear condition that causes dizziness and nausea among other things. They have experienced many answered prayers, big and small, and continue to be in awe of all who are praying for them, especially Julie. They ask for prayers for Julie and Tony's patience, courage and adjustment to this condition, effective medications that decrease the symptoms and occurrences of the episodes, and a support system.

CONGREGATIONAL LIFE

We express our sympathy to Pastor Al & Gwen at the sudden loss of Pastor Al's sister, Carolyn Cartwright from Bremerton, WA. Her memorial service was held this past Friday.

We also wish to express our sympathy to Gerald Dragstra, at the passing of his wife, Bonnie. A Memorial service was held for her in the Sioux Center Funeral Home on Thursday afternoon.

Continue praying for John Schreurs & family as he continues his recovery and treatment for his concussion.

Please keep these church members in your thoughts and prayers

Christa writes ~ A dam broke in southern Laos this past week causing severe flooding and wiping out at least 6 villages. One of the villages has a large church. So far dozens have been killed and more than a hundred are still missing. We know a number of groups, many who are Christian, who are going there to help. Pray for the people in the villages and the Christians who have gone to help, that Christ's light and love would shine through as they help those in need.

Thank You for remembering me on my 100th Birthday. I never imagined living 100 years and seeing so many changes in my lifetime. God is truly faithful and new mercies I see every day. Thanks again!
