Prayer Request from the Longkumer's ~ Lao New Year is on April 14-16 and it is the most important holiday in Laos. We are taking our Pilgrim's employees on a little trip to Luang Prabang, a city in the north of Laos. They are super excited to go! We want to use this time to be intentional in worshipping together in the car, praying together and talking about Jesus as we spend this relaxing time together. We will be spending time with many Lao believers in Luang Prabang as well. Pray that the Father would reveal himself to our three employees who are not yet saved, and for a deeper understanding of the Father for those who are saved.
